ORDER

Plaintiff brought this action pursuant to 205(g) of the Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), to obtain judicial review of a final decision of the defendant, Commissioner of Social Security, denying he claims for disability benefits. This matter is before the Court for review of the Report and Recommendation (“the Report”) filed by United States Magistrate Judge Shiva V. Hodges, to whom this case had previously been assigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2)(a), (D.S.C.). In the Report, the Magistrate Judge recommends that the decision of the Commissioner be reversed under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), with a remand of the case to the Commissioner for further proceedings as discussed in the Report. (Doc. # 21). The defendant filed an objection on July 8, 2011. (Doc. # 25). The plaintiff filed a reply on July 19, 2011. (Doc. # 28).

This Court has reviewed the cited cases and the Magistrate Judge’s analysis. In conducting this review, the Court applies the following standard:

The magistrate judge makes only a recommendation to the Court, to which any party may file written objections...The Court is not bound by the recommendation of the magistrate judge but, instead, retains responsibility for the final determination. The Court is required to make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified findings or recommendation as to which an objection is made. However, the Court is not required to review, under a de novo or any other standard, the factual or legal conclusions of the magistrate judge as to those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which no objections are addressed. While the level of scrutiny entailed by the Court's review of the Report thus depends on whether or not objections have been filed, in either case, the Court is free, after review, to accept, reject, or modify any of the magistrate judge's findings or recommendations.

(citations omitted).

In light of the standard set forth in Wallace, the Court has reviewed, de novo, the Report and the objections. After careful review of the Report and objections thereto, the Court ACCEPTS the Report. (Doc. # 21). Therefore, for the reasons articulated by the Magistrate Judge, the Commissioner's decision is REVERSED and remanded under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for additional consideration as set out in the Report.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
